Host, a great and awesome woman of God. And I want those words to be followed by: Icon, Leader, Boss, Director, Teacher, Preacher, Author, Contributor, Example, Treasure, Inventor, Pioneer, Prisoner and Work of Art.

I am Dr. Michelle Stevens and I have always been a dreamer who believes in turning dreams into reality. I am the host of the Dr. Stevens and Swearington Show. And I must say I count it an honor and I am proud to be working with one of the greatest women on the earth.

I have faced many challenges in life, and they all have shaped me for this present journey. I can identify with success, but I can also identify with failure, losing it all and the knowhow of rebuilding after serving 15 months in a Federal Prison Camp for Women. At one time in my life, I would have been afraid and ashamed to make that last statement, but I had to learn to say F the people and tell my truth, it can save someone else's life, and I realized that God chose me for the task.

I serve a God that is so awesome that I know what His word means in Isaiah 61:3 – To bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.

TOUGH TIMES DON'T LAST, TOUGH PEOPLE DO!

I have a tough exterior, life's trials will make you build walls of protection, but my heart is tender. After experiencing the greatest fall of my life, I realized that God has given me the opportunity to have the greatest launch of all time.

I had to sit back and think about the many accomplishments I have achieved, from graduating with my Doctorate at the top of my class, becoming a mother of two amazing children and turning my pain into two books. My pain made me focus on my God given gift of writing, but nothing compares to my mission and ministry of helping women.

I am THE life coach, who help women that feel stuck and uncertain about life's direction to find purpose and pursue their life's goals with confidence and passion to achieve satisfaction and happiness.

The Dr. Stevens and Swearington Show is the platform that gives me the space to provide a trusted and indispensable source of information, which is real and relevant. Our goal is to transform people's lives, while exercising endless power to encourage, bring resolution, and a sense of fulfillment to every guest and viewer. God allowed me to experience life's altering trials and triumphs in order to give me a voice and a story. And today, I use it in service of others to help them shine.
