A person should Never travel life without a GPS- GODS PROTECTIVE STEERING!

I AM THE COACH! As a life coach, I help women to believe in themselves by saying YES to self-love and Yes to new beginnings. Freedom begins with finding one's purpose, spreading love, and being profoundly grateful. I often say "crying, laughter and forgiveness is the start of healing." Staying in prayer, having a positive mental attitude, good energy, staying optimistic and approachable is the attraction where the door of opportunity reigns.

What makes me the perfect coach? Not my college degree nor my failures in life, but my experience along with all the others. I have been divorced and have now been married to my wonderful husband for 18 years. I am also the mother of three wonderful children. I will admit that family and marriage have had its trials and tribulations, but I can attest that our commitment of love, loyalty, and our promise to God has been the strength and bond to our foundation. The journey has been surreal, and I am amazed to realize that the "innocent" can never understand what the "experience" can truly feel and comprehend.
